

RLDA'S GROWING STORY

OUR FOUNDATION

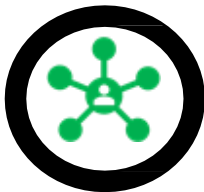

Statutory Authority established by Amendment in ‘The Railway Act, 1989’ in 2005. RLDA (Constitution) Rules published in 2007. Started functioning in 2007. RLDA Regulations published in 2012.

Land which is surplus with the Railway and not required for operational purposes or future expansion, is entrusted to RLDA.

Mandate of RLDA is “Development of Railway Land for commercial use for the purpose of generating revenue by non-tariff measures”.

RLDA now has Pan India presence – Corporate office at Delhi and Regional offices in major cities

ASSIGNMENTS PORTFOLIO

84 Multi-Functional Complex (MFC)

150 Commercial Development

109 Colony Redevelopment

104 Station Redevelopment

Transforming Railway Land and Infrastructure

The Rail Land Development Authority (RLDA) continues to play a pivotal role in development of railway land for commercial purposes, driving non-tariff revenue growth through innovative development models and transparent processes. The success along the years is as under –

